

SUPERINTENDENT INFORMATION

July 5, 2017

E. Village of Altamont's Museum in the Streets

The official opening of the “The Museum in the Streets” a joint venture between the Village of Altamont Archives and Museum, and the Altamont Free Library will be held at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 26, 2017 at Orsini Park in Altamont, by invitation only. As you will recall, the “Museum in the Streets” project depicts various aspects of the village building’s history in 26 locations throughout the village. A large panel will be installed in Orisni park and will provide a stylized map of Altamont to help visitors get oriented to the village and to locate the lecterns at each of the 26 sites on the walking tour. The Museum in the Streets is designed as a bilingual historical and cultural walking tour. The text of all panels is in both English and Spanish.

The official opening of the “The Museum in the Streets” a joint venture between the Village of Altamont Archives and Museum and The Altamont Free Library will be held at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 26, 2017 at Orsini Park in Altamont. As you will recall, the “Museum in the Streets” project depicts various aspects of the village building’s history in 26 locations throughout the village. A large panel will be installed in Orisni park and will provide a stylized map of Altamont to help visitors get oriented to the village and to locate the lecterns at each of the 26 sites on the walking tour. The "Museum in the Streets" is designed as a bilingual historical and cultural walking tour. The text of all panels is in both English and Spanish.